

college management system

using PHP and MYSQL

Education is an important and traditional part of society. As time has progressed education as also changed from traditional one. So according to the progress of education level. It also required changing the way of maintaining the student information in the colleges.

The college management system is web base system. The system deals with the registration of trainees, record updating and maintaining as well as attendance management system.